

Refund and Cancellation Policy:

The company is engaged in the business of lending and as such there is no refund of money involved in the normal course of business.

If customer wishes to cancel the loan after disbursal, it must be done within the cooling-off period. This period is specified in the terms and conditions of the loan agreement. Cancellation might not be possible after this cooling-off period has expired.

If loan cancellation request is made after signing the loan documents, refund is made after deducting the processing fee as mentioned on the loan agreement document.

In case of exceptional circumstances wherein the customer has paid EMI in advance the same will be refunded post receipt of an application from the customer requesting for refund and the request being found satisfactory by the relevant officer of the company.
